If you believe the media, most Americans want President Trump thrown out of office and our government to take a hard-left turn.

Meanwhile, one of America's major political parties has fallen under the spell of Marxist ideology.

Millions of Americans see the House's impeachment articles as little more than a political stunt, and they are determined to resist the "progressive" threat against our self-governing republic.

What are patriotic Americans doing at the grass-roots level to meet these challenges?
